

PICARD FUNCTOR AND LOGARITHMIC GEOMETRY

ABSTRACT. In this talk I will recall some basic facts concerning the relative Picard functor (for curves) and logarithmic geometry. At the end I will explain how a classical result of Raynaud can be reinterpreted in terms of the logarithmic Picard functor.